

Matching Gifts Program

For Employees of Barnes Aerospace

For the Financial Support of Educational Facilities, and Cultural, Civic and Youth and Health-Related Organizations

BARNES[™]
AEROSPACE

Purpose

To encourage full-time employees and their spouses to financially support primary and secondary schools, colleges, universities, civic and youth organizations, cultural and art organizations, and health care organizations in the United States.

General Information

- The Barnes Group Foundation, Inc. will make a contribution of $2 for every $1 contributed by an employee or spouse of an employee. However, the maximum contribution to be made by the Foundation on behalf of any employee/spouse is $4,000 per year (the date the Foundation receives certification that a gift was made will determine which calendar year applies).
- The contribution must be unrestricted, that is, not designated for a particular purpose (e.g., alumni funds, athletic associations, renovation funds, etc.).
- Contributions must be a min. of $25 to receive a matching gift.
- Contributions are subject to the conditions and max. dollar limitation set forth by the Foundation.
- The contribution must be paid, not pledged, in cash or in securities having a quoted market value. The amount of the matching gift in securities will be valued on the basis of the latest published bid prices on or before the date of the gift.

Who is Eligible?

- Any U.S. person actively employed by Barnes Aerospace as a full-time hourly or salaried employee.
- Any spouse of an eligible employee.
- Eligible institutions must be located in the United States or one of its possessions.
